LITTLE MILK SHIPPED. Only One Producer Sends Cans to Boston on Sunday-Supply Sent Through from New York.

Very little milk was shipped to Boston Sanday from this station or from stations east of here. The producers intend to stick by their agreement and within a few days the contractors will find that they have a tough proposition on their hands to supply milk to the market.

Sunday afternoon three carloads of milk came in here from points to the westward and was divided, some being shipped to Providence and some to Boszon. The latter shipment that went out at 4 o'clock constituted 887 30 1-2-quart cans of milk. It is understood that this morning there will derstood that this morning there will be an additional milk car on the reg-usual two sent out Boston way. The milk shipped from here Sunday aff-

There was a rather classy baseball game at the New Bridge grounds for seven innings when the Independents had it on the Emeralds by the score of 14 to 2. Dungan, the twirler for the Independents, then took a balloon ascension and walked about seven men and went all to pieces. He was relieved by Piotte, who finished out the game. The score at the finish was 16 to 15 in favor of the Emeralds. A big crowd witnessed the contest. The batteries were Higgins, McCarthy and big crowd witnessed the contest.
